Dear Sir:

In response to your letter of the 27th, I am sorry to advise that the medal you ordered on the 21st is not yet ready for delivery. We received your cheque, but owing to difficulties over which we have no control, there may be as much as a week to 10 days further delay before we can deliver this medal to you. I sincerely trust that you may not be inconvenienced by this delay.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
